

MARY THERESA (TERRY) WEBB, PH.D. CURRICULUM VITA

Mary Theresa (Terry) Webb is a published author, teacher-trainer, professional counselor, community and global leader. She has been on the forefront of social change in environmental education and substance abuse prevention/intervention. Featured in The World Who's Who of Women as founder and director of Conservation Consultants and GOAL Project, she receives speaking and training invitations from all over the world. She is an active member of the Anglican Global Mission Partners.

Dr. Webb received a theology degree from Trinity School for Ministry and a Masters in Education from the University of Pittsburgh. She earned her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Michigan and a Doctorate of Philosophy from the University of America in Family and Marital Studies/Addiction Intervention.

Her recent published works include:

Memories and Miracles. Create Space. 2017.

Who's calling? Redemption Press. 2015.

Thaddeus Stevens: An Inconvenient Hero. Drawbaugh Publishing Group. 2014.

Tree of Life. Publishing Institute of Africa. 2013 (formerly Crossroads. 1992)

"Redeemable Egyptian Revolution." Sojourner's Magazine. July, 2013.

"The Dementia Tsunami." Caregiver Solutions, A Resource Guide for Family Caregivers, 2012. 16-18.

"HIV and Addiction from an African Perspective: Making the Link." (vol.2, chapt 13) The Praeger International Collection on Addictions. Praeger Publishers, Westport, CT. 2009. 225-234.

"Codependence from a Family Systems Perspective." (vol 3, chapt 8) The Praeger International Collection on Addictions. Praeger Publishers, Westport, CT. 2009. 141-160.

Healing Bottle Family Roles. GOAL Project. 2005 (being translated into Arabic).

Healing Hope for Bruised Souls: A Church Training Manual. GOAL Project, 2002.

"Fighting the Enemy on other fronts." The Times, November 11, 2001. A15.

"Irina Yachkova Hounded Heaven." Adventist Review, November 8, 2001. 24-26.

"Charismatic Episcopalians Brace for Fight as They Spread Renewal." Charisma, September, 2000. 10. "No Longer Underground." Charisma, January, 2000. 57-60.

"Eastern Europe Struggles with Addiction." Perspectives. February, 2000.

Her speaking, missionary training and consulting include:

Workshops for congregations and families, 2015-2018.

AOD program and training at Uganda Christian University, 2014-2017.

"Russia: 1998-2001" Presentation at Great Decisions, 2015.

"Family Issues," Instructor, ISAACS International School, Egypt, September-October, 2001; April, October, 2002; October, 2003, October, 2006, April, 2008.